Ceasefire Between National Interests and International Pressures

by Ahmad 'Atiya
Political Commissioner for the Third Battalion

It has become clear that the U.S. is trying to carry out a strategic plan in the East Asia region to assure its *[the U.S. 's] stability as a singular axis in the world, with all that that entails in the way of preventing creation of future alliances against [entities] such as the Asian Arc (Russia – China – India – Pakistan). It has therefore been incumbent on it [the U.S.] that it establish a foothold for itself, such as a military base in the center of the Arc, demarcating the focus of Asia to be Afghanistan.

With this, several of Bin Laden's 'birds' are being ensnared one by one. Among these 'birds' are:

- 1 – An advanced strategic position at the center of the arc of the future alliance,
- 2 – Getting hands on the oil and gas reserves in the Caspian Sea,
- 3 - Getting hands on the currency basket in the fluctuating Asian countries, along with many other both anticipated and unanticipated benefits.

The essence of this is that it [the U.S.] has moved the weapons of its Middle East battlefield to East Asia, using all legal and non-legal justifications and covers to carry out its plan. With this, the Middle East region is [becoming] the equivalent of the rear battle lines for its [the U.S. 's] assault, and so it is time for it [the U.S.] to become quiet and stable, so that it may assure the stability of lines that it has connected from Western North Africa to Central Asia. This goes together well with Israel's loss of its strategic importance to the U.S. due to the transfer of the battlefield [away] from the Middle East.

The importance of this is that assuring the stability of the Middle East region may lie in solving the Palestinian problem, and as result, solving the Palestinian problem is becoming an American interest within the horizon of which U.S. pressure on Israel could be deemed appropriate. The time for this has come, after depletion of its [Israel's] strategic importance to the U.S., on one hand, and the increase in the importance of satisfying the Arab populace in order to assure stability of the U.S. connecting line to East Asia, the hot focus, on the other. So there is nothing strange in the emergence of an American plan to establish a Palestinian state at this time, and the future is brighter.

Israel realizes this completely, and what Sharon is attempting to do is race against time to return the region to square one, and implement demographic changes while the U.S. occupies itself in Afghanistan, so that he [Sharon] may assure a future negotiating position by which to protect himself from U.S. pressures to relinquish what he has usurped. Now and in the future, the U.S. justification for fighting terrorism is to depict oneself as a victim of terrorism, carry out one's plan under the same U.S. justification, and combat terror as [part of] the latest fad in the worldwide media market.

In the context of this clear image, it becomes clear that our historical leadership's position must be a ceasefire aimed at depriving Sharon of justification to carry out his plan, because he is trying to buy a justification like this via any means. [Our leadership's position must also be] that all efforts by Palestinian forces should be turned towards inflaming the popular Intifada until the image of the infamous child who challenges Israeli tanks with stones appears, for this image evokes Arab and Muslim sympathy, and [the sympathy of] the free world, and moves it [the free world] from the [illegible word] state to which western capitalism has been aspiring for decades, to a revolutionary state that values Arab interests in resolving the Palestinian problem through [much-] needed additional U.S. and European pressure on Israel; by the exertion of a greater effort to satisfy the Arab populace who is angry over [measures] that reverse, more than they confer, Palestinian rights; by placing Sharon himself within the circle of terrorism against Palestinian children; by exposing the occupation to be the filthiest [form of] terrorism in the vogue of worldwide terrorism; and by putting the rope back on Sharon's neck so that he can strangle himself.

Gilmore 00214 T
SHATSKY - 007703

On that basis, a ceasefire would be in Palestinians' unadulterated best interests, and it is incumbent on all the forces calling for resistance to seize upon their abilities to marshal their human energies in inflaming the popular Intifada, for everyone is in the same trench and confrontation, but we shall apply the ideally suitable weapon, for the time and place, to the enemy's point of weakness, in order to achieve the optimal goals.

We have placed trust in the leader and leadership to lead
[this] juncture to the righteousness of indemnity.

Opinion

by Muhammad Abu Hajras
Political Commissioner for the Second Border Battalion

[A faint full-page-sized image of a scale appears as background behind the printed text of this article]

I am absolutely sure, as are many of the Palestinian people, that Bush's words, in his speech before the U.N. on creation of a Palestinian state, were not the product of any strategic conviction or sudden [sense]* of American justice. Instead, these were spurious slogans by which he was attempting to achieve tactical goals in Afghanistan and Iraq. After these [words], all U.S. practices on the ground confirm clearly that it [the U.S.] is incisive in its arbitrary methodology against the Palestinian people and brother Iraq, and that what concerns it [the U.S.], from these statements, is nothing but the state of Israel, its strategic ally. Giving the nod to a Palestinian state alongside Israel is nothing but throwing dust in the eyes [i.e., creating a smokescreen] in order to numb the emotions of Arabs, Arab leaders, and Muslims, who would actually be numb even if the Palestinian people were totally extirpated from their land. Then here comes the U.S., revealing the falsity of its slogans, time after time; and through its protection of the historical arrangement of its policy towards Israel, since its [Israel's] creation and through to today, the Bush administration, like its predecessors, and since its [electoral] victory, has done the following:

Gilmore 00216
SHATSKY - 007704

- ❖ Condemned the Palestinian Intifada, deeming it to be a form of violence, and demanding that it be stopped;
- ❖ Refused to meet with President Abu 'Ammar, to listen to the Palestinian point of view, at a time in which it has met, many times, with Sharon;
- ❖ Refused to participate in the conference that was convened for discussion and support of Palestinian human rights being violated on occupied territories by Israel;
- ❖ Not condemned the settlement process, and not demanded cessation of the settlements, which are considered to be an obstacle to the peace process;
- ❖ Demanded a complete and 100% halt, as Sharon is demanding, to resistance against the occupation, which the U.S. administration calls, in deference to Israel, Palestinian violence;
- ❖ The U.S. State Department spokesperson blames the Palestinian side for its inability to stop the violence, and also calls for a period of 7 days, requested as proof of Palestinians' good intentions towards peace;
- ❖ Fought against any plan or resolution that demands that Israel withdraw from Palestinian territories, or that would stop Israeli terrorism, through use of the [U.S.'s Security Council] veto power, and by demanding that those [things] be achieved [only] through direct negotiation between the clashing parties; Through this, the U.S. administration has equated the Palestinian stone and the Israeli tank missile, and even equated the victim and the executioner in this struggle, which is disproportionate, as is attested in all international customs and law.
- ❖ If only the U.S. President would be truthful in his slogans, he would not have left Sharon and his murdering soldiers to commit massacre after massacre on Palestinian territories, and, in addition to that, within a period of 24 hours, to kill thirteen martyrs in cold blood, including 6 children, [with] 5 [killed] by a mine that the murderers placed on the road to school, and the sixth killed at a time when they [Israeli military personnel] were steeped in excuses, in the loathsome and savage manner of these murderers.

Based on what is presented above, the Palestinian people reject the yellow policy of the U.S. and its leader Bush, and our people shall continue the popular struggle and Intifada until achievement of the sought-after and historical goal, which is defeat of the occupation, a sweeping away of the settlement process, establishment of an independent state with noble Jerusalem as its capital, and a return of the refugees, in spite of the haters and those skeptical of the justness of our cause, which we have taken on through our historical and continuous struggle against the occupation, and through waterfalls of blood that the Palestinian people have offered up on a daily basis, across all spheres; and not through the glittering words of the [U.S.] President, for all that glitters is not gold, and we are not simpletons who would even believe that a mirage will shower rain.

أجزم كما يجزم الكثير من أبناء الشعب الفلسطيني أن كلمة بوش في خطابه لمام الأمم المتحدة الفلسطينية لم يصدر عن قناعة استراتيجية أو عن العدل الأمريكي المفاجئ بل هي قناعة في أهداف تكتيكية في أفغانستان والعراق بعدها حيث تؤكد كل الممارسات الأمريكية على إرضاع أنها ماضية في نهجها التصفي ضد الشعب الفلسطيني والعراق الشقيق ولا يهمها من هي إسرائيل حليفتها الاستراتيجية وأن الإشارة لدولة فلسطينية إلى جانب إسرائيل ما هي إلا استمرار ولتحذير الوجان العربي والقادة العرب والمسلمين الذين هم في الأصل مخدرون حتى ويفسدو من أرضه فيها هي أمريكا تكشف عن زيف شعاراتها مرة تلو المرة ومن خلال محافظتها على سياستها تجاه إسرائيل منذ قيامها وحتى اليوم حيث عملت إدارة بوش كسباقاتها ومناوراتها

• إدانة الانقضاضة الفلسطينية واعتبارها شكلا من شكل العقاب والمطالبة بوقفها

• رفض اللقاء بالرئيس أبو حماد الاستراتيجي لوجه النظر الفلسطيني في قراراته

• رفض المشاركة في المؤتمرات واللقاءات التي تجتمع فيها كل الأطراف في المقدمة

المحظية من قبل إسرائيل.

• عدم إدانة الاستيطان أو المطالبة بإزالة المستوطنات التي تعتبر عائقا في وجه عملية السلام

• المطالبة بوقف مقاومة الاحتلال والذي شنته الإدارة الأمريكية لصالح إسرائيل كانت وبنسبة ٩٠% كما يطالب شارون.

• المتحدث الأمريكي باسم الخارجية الأمريكية بلوم المقرب لبول بريت الفلسطيني لعدم تحكمه من حيث لمدة السبعة أيام المطلوبة لإثبات جنون الولايا الفلسطينية على السلام.

• محاربة أي مشروع أو قرار يطالب إسرائيل بالاسناد من الأراضي الفلسطينية إلا الإسرائيلي باستعمال حق الفيتو والمطالبة بتحقيق ذلك من خلال التفاوض المباشر بين الطرفين وبهذا ساوت الإدارة الأمريكية بين العجز الفلسطيني وحالة الديبلوماسية الإسرائيلية بل شاركت في ذلك العجز بمحاربة المطالبتين كل الأشكاف والشانق والشانق.

• إدانة الرئيس الأمريكي محبه في سعراته لما يساندون وخدوده، والتغطية على الأراضي الفلسطينية والاحتلال في كل الأشكاف والشانق والشانق، ووضعه القاتلة في طريق المدرسة والشانق بعدها في المحاجة على العدالة، القاتلة.

وبناء على ما تقدم يرفض الشعب الفلسطيني السياسة الصفراء للولايات المتحدة الأمريكية الشعبية التضليل والانقضاضية الشعبية حتى تتحقق الهدف المنشود والتاريخي وهو حصر الاحتلال في الدولة المستقلة وعاصمتها القدس الشريف وعودة اللاجئين رغم أنف الحاقد والمتسلكين لكتبيتها من خلال نضالنا التاريخي والمتواصل ضد الاحتلال ويفعل شلال الدم الذي يعممه على كافة السلاحات وليس بكلمات الرئيس الراحل فليس كل ما يلمع ذهنا ولا سما من الشك

سيسقط مطرا.
